FERTILITY

Dallas IVF has been growing families since 1997. With more than 13,000 children born through the treatments of award-winning and caring physicians, Dallas IVF is recognized as one of the most experienced fertility practices in the country and is led by fellowship-trained reproductive endocrinology and infertility subspecialists Dr. Brian D. Barnett, Dr. Lowell T. Ku, Dr. Dara L. Havemann, and Dr. Sara J. Mucowski. Dallas IVF physicians strive to offer individualized care and take great pride in offering support every step of the way.

Dallas IVF is proud of its many milestones in Collin County, including Collin County's first PGD pregnancy, first donor egg pregnancy, first donor embryo pregnancy, and the first PGS pregnancy achieved for family balancing. Dallas IVF has multiple offices to meet the high demand for its services. When it comes to growing your family, experience has never mattered more!

Dallas IVF provides the complete scope of infertility treatments, including:
